Re: Nebraska Fall Ed Tech Conference

The Nebraska Council of School Administrators (NCSA) and the Nebraska Educational Technology Association (NETA) are excited to announce a partnership to provide a comprehensive and informative conference on technologies available and utilized in Nebraska schools. Today’s students are actively engaged in using technology. They are early adapters of new technology and appear to be light-years ahead of the rest of the adult world. We challenge school leaders to understand and to successfully integrate technology to develop 21st century schools.

Enclosed, please find information on exhibiting and sponsorship for the Nebraska Fall Ed Tech Conference to be held October 9-10, 2014, at the Younes Conference Center in Kearney, Nebraska.

Exhibit Time: Friday, October 10th from 7:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Set Up Time: Thursday, October 9th from 4:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.

Take Down Time: Friday, October 10th after 2:00 p.m.

We encourage your participation in what is scheduled to be an outstanding annual event. Participation is anticipated to be over 500 school administrators and teachers. For more information on the sessions offered and keynote speaker go to http://www.fall.netasite.org
